Comment:

- I-200-001 | We never recieved any contact of any sort even though this proposed line cuts diagonally through our entire property! When we purchased this property we were well aware of our easement responsibilities to the existing line. Because of the beauty of the area, abundant wildlife and agricultural advantages, we decided our retirement goals had been met and the existing lines could be dealt with. Now the rules change, with very little, if any, concern for our situation. We pay our taxes, cultivate the land and natural habitat, generally make things a bit better and get stepped on.
- I-200-002 | There is no real need for this other than to promote the greed and financial benefit between government and private industry.
